

Algorithmic Patterns: Solutions 1

This algorithm is linear search of an array. Check each entry in turn returning the first position where the search key (the number in the circle) is found. The array positions are numbered from 0. If you get to the end of the array without finding the key then return -1 to indicate "NOT FOUND".

