

Egyptian Gods and Goddesses Word Search: Solution

AMUN was the king of the Egyptian gods. He had a human head.

ANUBIS helped the dead into the afterlife. He had a wolf's head.

HATHOR was the goddess of the sky. She is often pictured as a cow.

HORUS was the god of the sky. He had a falcon's head.

ISIS helped the dead into the afterlife and protected Egypt from its enemies. She had a human head.

KHEPRI represented the rising sun. He had the face of a Beetle.

KHNUM was the god of the source of the Nile. He had the head of a Ram.

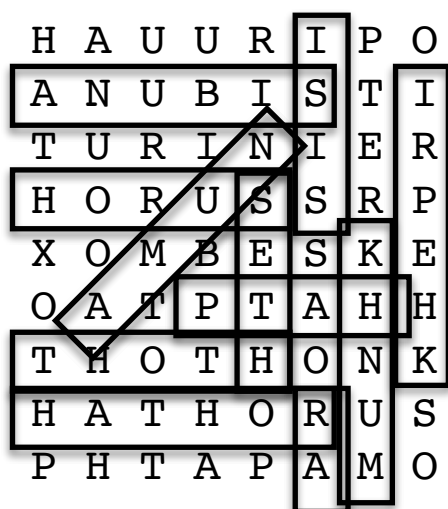

OSIRIS was the god of life and death. He had a human head but green skin.

PTAH was the god of crafts. He had a human head.

RA was the god of the sun. He had a falcon's head (like Horus).

SETH was god of the desert and trickery. He had a beast's head like no real animal.

THOTH was god of wisdom and writing. He had the head of an Ibis bird.

OSIRIS is missing from the grid.

You must check every position in turn to be sure that a word is not in the grid. Only when you get to the end do you know it isn't there.